Code of conduct for members

Marazion Angling Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all. The club believes that it is important that members and others associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Barry Little, Secretary.

As a member of Marazion Angling Club, you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:

All members must take responsibility in ensuring they are up to date with the rules, understand and adhere to them.
All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.
Members should recognise the valuable contribution made by members and officials who are usually volunteers. They give their time and resources to provide angling facilities for you.
All members must respect officials and publicly accept their decisions.
All members should be a positive role model, treat other members and officials with the same level of respect you would expect to be shown to you.
Use correct and proper language at all times.
Members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs on club premises or whilst representing the club.
Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated. Encourage everyone to enjoy angling and understand that people have different motivations for taking part.
